Matthew 5:13-16

Matthew 5:13-16

[13] “You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people’s feet.

[14] “You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. [15] Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. [16] In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. (ESV)

Reflection Questions:

1. Jesus says “you are the light” — not “you should try to be the light.” How does knowing that your light is rooted in who you are in Christ, rather than what you do, change the way you approach your daily life this week?
2. In what specific area of your life are you most tempted to hide your light — through silence, blending in, or fear of what others will think? What would it look like to stop covering that lamp?
3. The Greek word for “good” in “good works” is kalos — meaning beautiful. Think of someone in your life who has made Jesus beautiful to you. What did that look like? And who might God be calling you to make Jesus beautiful to?
