Matthew 5:17-19

Matthew 5:17-19

[17] “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. [18] For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. [19] Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. Reflection Questions:

1. Jesus says the word of God will outlast heaven and earth itself. How often does the permanence of Scripture actually shape the weight you give it in your daily life — and what would change if it did?
2. The sermon showed that Jesus fulfills the Law in three directions at once: obeying it perfectly, revealing its deepest intention, and being the one all of it points toward. Which of those three hit you freshest today, and why?
3. Who is the "Philip" in your story — the person who came alongside you and helped you understand what you were reading? And who might be waiting for you to play that role for them?
