Matthew 5:17-20

Matthew 5:17-20

[17] “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. [18] For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. [19] Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. [20] For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. (ESV)

Reflection Questions:

1. Do you feel closer to God when you've performed well spiritually? What does that reveal about how you actually understand your relationship with him?
2. Have you truly said "I do" to Jesus, or just adopted Christian practices? If you're uncertain, what's holding you back?
3. Name one area where obedience feels like duty. What would it look like to bring it back to the cross this week?
